CONSTITUTION

A.C.I.U. UNITED KINGDOM

ABIRIBA COMMUNAL IMPROVEMENT UNION

UNITED KINGDOM

Constitution

Self-help is the surest part to progress

London
United Kingdom

Content

1.0 BACKGROUND ..... 1
2.0 TYPE OF ORGANISATION ..... 1
3.0 MISSION STATEMENT: ..... 2
4.0 AIMS AND OBJECTIVES: ..... 2
5.0 REGISTERED HEADQUATERS/ADDRESS ..... 4
6.0 GOVERNING STRUCTURE ..... 4
7.0 MEMBERSHIP ..... 5
8.0 SUBSCRIPTION ..... 6
9.0 OBLIGATIONS OF MEMBERS ..... 6
10.0 RIGHTS AND PREVILEGES ..... 8
11.0 EXECUTIVE OFFICERS ..... 9
12.0 DUTIES OF EXECUTIVE OFFICERS ..... 11
13.0 NON-ELECTORAL OFFICES ..... 18
14.0 COMMITTEES ..... 20
15.0 GENERAL MEETING: ..... 21
16.0 AMENDMENT: ..... 23

1.0 BACKGROUND

We the sons and daughters, 18 years of age and above, of Abiriba Kingdom resident in the United Kingdom agree to be banded by this constitution to promote the interest and welfare of our members.

1.1.1 The purpose of this Constitution among other things are:

1.1.2 To advance fellowship with one another

1.1.3 To promote and preserve our rich culture and traditions

1.1.4 To promote the unity, improvement, and development of our community

1.1.5 To support a viable and sustainable economic base for the advancement of our members.

Therefore, we are all bound to uphold and abide by the provisions of this Constitution with the laws of the United Kingdom.

2.0 TYPE OF ORGANISATION

2.1 The name of this organization shall be “Abiriba Communal Improvement Union of the United Kingdom and Northern Ireland” hereafter referred to as the “ACIU-UK”.

2.2 A charity, non-profit, non-partisan socio-cultural organization

2.3 The ACIU-UK derives its heritage from the Abiriba Communal Improvement Union founded in 1942.

3.0 MISSION STATEMENT:

3.1 The ACIU-UK is a charitable socio-cultural organization for the purpose of fostering, promoting, and maintaining unity amongst our members.

3.2 Preserving Abiriba traditions and cultural heritage for the unity, civic development and peaceful coexistence of our members in UK.

4.0 AIMS AND OBJECTIVES:

4.1 To play a leading role in all matters concerning the welfare of the members and Abiriba people in the UK

4.2 To promote the progress and development of Abiriba indigenes resident in the UK through economic support, infrastructural investment, welfare care, public safety and philanthropic initiatives

4.3 To provide a framework and development of Abiriba descendants in the United Kingdom to learn and understand their cultural heritage and traditions.

4.4 To promote, preserve, encourage, and maintain Abiriba cultural heritage and facilitate cultural exchange between the Organization and the UK community in which we reside

4.5 To network with all other cultural organizations in the UK that are relevant and beneficial to the interests of the Abiriba community in the United Kingdom.

4.6 To engage in constructive alliances that uphold the economic and political interests of our members while fostering the progress of UK society at large.

4.7 To play a non-partisan mediation and reconciliatory role in all issues that may be divisive to our unity and solidarity, and to always seek the general welfare of the community.

4.8 To conduct voluntary fundraising programs, donate and disburse funds, and hold properties for the Organization

4.9 To provide functional and supportive network and to assist members as much as possible on legitimate matters that may fall within the scope, reasoning, and resources of the Organization

4.10 To promote and support educational institutions at all levels both in Abiriba, the United Kingdom and elsewhere in the world. To this end, the Organization shall recognize support and encourage: (a) the establishment and or refurbishment of education institutions at all levels; (b) the organization of tutorials on Igbo Language and Abiriba cultural heritage and traditions in correlation to the United kingdom cultures; (c) offer educational scholarships to less privileged sons and daughters of our members and other communities (d) and carry out any other activities that leads to the fulfilment of the aforementioned objectives as may be necessary from time to time, in accordance with the education policy of our charity-focused organization.

4.11 To further conduct any other activities, compatible with the laws of the United Kingdom, as may be necessary or appropriate to carry out charity objectives.

4.12 To promote and protect the economic well-being of the Abiriba people and UK community in general.

4.13 To promote and preserve equality, justice, fair play, peace, unity, and harmony among Abiriba people in the UK.

5.0 REGISTERED HEADQUATERS/ADDRESS

5.1 The Registered office of the Organization shall be in London.

6.0 GOVERNING STRUCTURE

6.1 The general assembly shall be the representative body of the Organization and has ultimate power of ownership, decisions, and electoral processes.

6.2 The Trustees shall have the oversighting responsibility and accountability of the organization. Day to day operations shall be run by an elected executive supported by standing committees and its registered members. A 4-year executive tenure shall apply.

6.3 The elected President and Treasurer, as part of their elected office and responsibilities, shall be members of the Trustees during their tenure.

6.4 This Organization shall maintain alliance with the Central ACIU of which the Branch has its delegated voting rights.

6.5 The London EXCO branch shall serve as the ACIU-UK headquarters.

6.6 The elected executives of the ACIU London branch shall serve as part of the National Executive Council (NEC) comprising the Charity Trustees which may be expanded as additional UK branches are inaugurated.

6.7 The financial statement and records shall be reviewed periodically, at least once under any fiscal year with an audited account presented to the General Assembly by the April/May meeting. While quarterly accounts update shall be reported to the general assembly.

6.8 A local chapter within the United Kingdom & Northern Ireland shall be inaugurated by national Executive of the ACIU-UK.

6.9 All disputes within the membership shall be resolved by the Executive.

6.10 In the event of any disputes within the Exco, the General Assembly shall constitute a disciplinary committee to investigate and resolve the issue.

6.11 A Caretaker Committee shall be constituted by the General Assembly to manage the affairs of the Organization in the event of a potential administrative vacuum.

6.12 The Organization shall have a central account, while an inaugurated Chapter/branch shall run their own account under the supervision of the NEC. No sub-group is permitted to operate a separate account.

7.0 MEMBERSHIP

7.1 Adults aged 18 years and above of Abiriba heritage in good standing and conduct can be admitted. However, admission of non-indigenes shall be considered at a General Meeting under certain discretional circumstances.

7.2 A registered member shall be financially up to date with dues and attend 70% of scheduled monthly General meetings including virtual meetings such as Zoom or similar.

7.3 In circumstance where membership in a local ACIU chapter is not available, a person of Abiriba ancestry may apply for direct membership to the ACIU-UK central office/headquarters, London.

7.4 Honorary membership status shall be conferred on individuals under exceptional circumstances such as significant contribution to the ACIU-UK or the UK community; or to friends and well-wishers of the UK community who share similar interest with our aims and objectives.

8.0 SUBSCRIPTION

8.1 All Abiriba indigenes or any person or persons with Abiriba heritage and any member of the UK community, above the age of 18 years, can seek for membership of the ACIU-UK

8.2 Membership subscription shall include a prevailing registration fees, annual dues and other voluntary donations which may be subject to amendment at the AGM.

8.3 The local chapter is responsible, where applicable, for processing their local membership subscription.

9.0 OBLIGATIONS OF MEMBERS

9.1 Membership constitutes a willing acceptance of this constitution.

9.2 Every member shall be of good character and in good financial standing.

9.3 A full member shall always fulfil and maintain the stipulated annual dues and contribution otherwise loses his membership and entitlements.

9.4 The annual subscription and dues shall be agreed at the AGM and payable by the end of July in every calendar year. At the end of a 3-month grace period, not exceeding the end of October of the calendar year, any owing member shall put his membership and benefits into considerations.

9.5 Any member who has not paid up his full subscription by the end of October in each calendar year, ceases to be a financial member until all arrears are cleared or paid up in full. Renewal fees stipulated below shall apply for re-registration in the next calendar year.

9.6 To maintain full membership status, full payment of the stipulated annual subscription and dues shall be required. A default would result in the loss of membership privileges until all financial outstanding are fully cleared and paid up.

9.7 Members shall obtain an official permission of absence from a scheduled meeting through the EXCO. Reasonable exigencies may be considered however only three (3) permissions shall be granted in any calendar year.

9.8 Absentees from each meeting without permission attracts a fee of £10.00.

9.9 Initial registration fee for new members is a one-off payment of £50.00 however this fee is subject to changes in accordance with prevailing economic situations.

9.10 Elapsed membership shall be renewed with £20.00 plus the full payment of any outstanding arrears while a member.

9.11 All debts shall be deducted from any benefit and entitlement due to any member

9.12 Members are expected to attend at least 7/10 of the scheduled monthly meetings including virtual meetings. In any fiscal year, where a member fails to attain 70% participation of scheduled meeting, he/she puts their benefits and entitlements under considerations.

9.13 From the date of formal membership, all debts shall be deducted from any entitlement and benefits to the members

9.14 Members shall not be engaged in an unbecoming and reproachable manner at any official gathering. A member who fails to comply shall be subject to a penalty and/or disciplinary actions as deemed appropriate.

9.15 Any member who rescinds, without a genuine reason, a delegated duty by the Executive and/or the General Assembly shall face a disciplinary action.

9.16 The good and best interests of the Abiriba Community shall remain a primary prerogative of members.

10.0 RIGHTS AND PREVILEGES

10.1 Right of recognition and participation in meetings and activities

10.2 Right to contribute and be heard during General meeting

10.3 Entitled to elect and be elected to official positions and duties on behalf of the Organization

10.4 The burial rites for member, spouse, biological parents, and children are as follows;

- Member - £1000.00
- Spouse - £500.00
- Biological Parent - £200.00
- Children - £500.00

10.5 To advocate for support and care for members in need.

10.6 Retired members (Nde mela Uche) shall make at least half of the prevailing annual subscription and dues to retain their full membership entitlements and benefits.

10.7 In recognition of our external relationships and to honours official invitations (Ikpo Oku) outside the stipulated benefits to members, a token of £50 accompanied with a reasonable gift item may be given to the affect member.

10.8 Other Benefits in recognition of our external relationships and to honour official invitations (Ikpo Oku) when received from a member, the following applies;

10.8.1 Uche Ceremony

- Men – Wrapper (George), Jumper, Cap, Walking stick & £100.00
- Women – Wrapper (Ukpo), Blouse, Headtie, Umbrella & £100.00

10.9 Igwa Mang Ceremony - £50.00

10.10 Marriage Ceremony - £50.00

10.11 Christening Ceremony - £50.00

11.0 EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

The Executive shall comprise the following offices

- The President
- The Vice President
- General Secretary
- Assistant Secretary
- Treasurer
- Financial Secretary
- The Director of Women Affairs
- Provost/Speaker
- General Welfare Officer
- Public Relation Officer

11.1 Election shall be held every four years at a scheduled AGM.

11.2 The elected Executives shall hold bi-annual meetings with the Trustees by end of May and end of October on each calendar year.

11.3 The Executive shall hold regular meetings at intervals deemed necessary for the purposes of running the Organizations.

11.4 Decisions ratified by the Executive at an EXCO meeting shall be binding on all Executive members. Such decisions shall be carried by the collective agreement. However, if put to vote, the decision is binding irrespective of their individual vote.

11.5 The Executive shall have the power to propose to the General Assembly the enactment of by-laws that are appropriate for the running of the organization as at when needed.

11.6 All Executive Officers are required to attend all scheduled meetings. Repeated absence from scheduled Executive meetings may be tantamount to negligence of duty.

11.7 Members of the same household shall not at the same time hold sensitive offices that may jeopardize our funds management and financial records during any Executive tenure.

11.8 Any Executive Officer found neglecting their duties or other conducts deemed inappropriate shall be removed and dismissed from office by the General Assembly following a fair due process establish by the Executive Office and decision ratified by the General Assembly.

11.9 The Quorum for an Executive meeting shall be formed by 2/3 of the Executive Officers.

11.10 At the expiration of the tenure of office all assets, records and documents belonging to the Organization shall be returned within thirty (30) day after the expiration of the tenure of office.

11.11 Standing and Ad-Hoc committees would be used to support the Executive in conducting their functions. See details in Clause 13.

11.12 An Executive who in his authorized absence may have his opinions and contributions considered towards any justification of a decision made by the Executive.

11.13 Any vacant office shall be filled by the General Assembly at the next meeting either by election or consensus.

12.0 DUTIES OF EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

12.1 The President

12.1.1 Leads the Executive in the running of the affairs of the Organization

12.1.2 Is directly accountable to the General Assembly and the Central Executive Body

12.1.3 Have the overall responsibilities of the Executive functions

12.1.4 May call for emergency meetings when required

12.1.5 Be the Chief spokesperson and representative of the Organization

12.1.6 0versee the work of the members of the Executive

12.1.7 Certify that a quorum is present before conducting any business at any meeting or gathering

12.1.8 Have the authority to call for a general/official meeting of the Organization and shall preside over such meetings

12.1.9 Be a signatory to the Organizations' bank and financial accounts as one of the authorized signatories

12.1.10 Authorize all financial transactions

12.1.11 Uphold the constitution of the Organization, including all policies and by-rules.

12.1.12 Present an annual statement of affairs of the Organization at the General Assembly during the last General meeting of each year. Copies of the massage shall be made available to all members by a written document or other means of communication.

12.1.13 Maintain the spending authority within the expenditure obligations and financial capacity of the Organization.

12.1.14 Initiate the drive for capital funding for projects and create means for revenue generation for the Organization.

12.2 The Vice President

12.2.1 Shall support the President in conducting all the functions, among others, as specified in Clause 12.1 as delegated by the President.

12.2.2 In the absence of the President or where the President is deemed incapacitated, he/she shall assume and conduct all the functions of the President.

12.2.3 Serve in standing and/or Ad Hoc committees at the request of the President and/or the Executive when such does not conflict with his official duties.

12.3 General Secretary

12.3.1 Have the responsibility of compiling and maintaining custody of the corporate seal, all current and historical records, and all other documents of the Organization, except the financial records.

12.3.2 Record the minutes of the Organizations' meetings/conventions. The minutes of each meeting shall be read out at to all members at the next General meeting for adoption.

12.3.3 Ensure minutes of meeting and a written agenda is published prior to every meeting

12.3.4 Keep current and previous copies of the constitution, Article of Registration, minutes, and all correspondences addressed to the Organization and all responses

12.3.5 A custodian of the Organization official seals and stamps

12.3.6 Keeps the register of members, records of meetings, attendance, role-calls, subscriptions, and admissions.

12.3.7 Ensure all registered members have a copy of the Organization's constitution upon admission and clearance from Finance.

12.3.8 Perform such other duties as may be assigned by the Executive.

12.4 Assistant Secretary

12.4.1 Assist the General Secretary to conduct the functions of the office of the secretary.

12.4.2 In the absence of the General Secretary, the Assistant Secretary shall function as the General Secretary, perform the duties, and exercise the responsibilities of the General Secretary

12.5 Treasurer

12.5.1 Maintain the custody and safety of all the funds of the Organization.

12.5.2 Be responsible for the disbursement of all funds as approved by the Executive or the General Assembly

12.5.3 Ensure that all cash/cheques collected on behalf of the Organization are deposited into the Organization's bank account within 7 days.

12.5.4 Maintain accurate record of all financial income and expenditures

12.5.5 Be one of the signatories to the Organization's bank account(s) and shall only make authorized withdrawals/disbursement as approved by the President.

12.5.6 Work with the Financial Secretary to ensure the timely submission of all financial statements to the authorized representatives as at when required.

12.5.7 Work with the Financial Secretary and other officers, to update and report periodic financial statement to the Executives, General Assembly and statutory/regulatory bodies.

12.5.8 For audit review, when requested, the Financial Secretary shall present all the required and relevant records.

12.5.9 At the close of each fiscal year, the President, Financial Secretary, and Treasurer should submit a detailed financial report to the Trustees, EXCO and the General assembly. This report must include:

1. Revenue (Inflow of Funds) – A breakdown of all income sources (e.g., dues, donations, grants, fundraising).
2. Expenditures (Outflow of Funds) – A categorized summary of all expenses (e.g., operational costs, event spending, administrative fees).
3. Current Financial Position – A clear statement of the organization's assets, liabilities, and net balance at year-end.

This ensures financial transparency, accountability, and informed governance for the organization.

12.5.10 Could serve in a Standing and/or Ad Hoc committee at the request of the President when such does not conflict with the official duties.

12.6 Financial Secretary

12.6.1 Have the responsibility for preparing, maintaining, and keeping custody of all the Organization's financial records, including but not limited to cheque books disbursement, dues, payments, bank deposit slips, paid and unpaid invoices, and all financial instruments and transactions

12.6.2 Have the responsibility for collecting, receiving and maintaining records of all funds due to the Organization and shall deliver such funds to the Treasurer for deposit into the Organization's bank account within 7 days.

12.6.3 The Financial Secretary shall prepare, and present approved payment cheques/withdrawal slips to the authorized signatories. Thereafter, the instrument shall be processed for payment and/or withdrawal by the Treasurer.

12.6.4 Work with the Treasurer and other officers, to submit regular quarterly and full annual financial reports to the Trustees, EXCO and the Organization's General Assembly meetings.

12.6.5 Be the Organization's collection agent for dues, donations, levies, gifts, and all contributions and must issue receipts for all monies paid to him or her on behalf of the Organization

12.6.6 Keep a registry of members for the recording and collection of dues and levies

12.6.7 Perform other related duties that may be assigned by the President in line with the goals of the Organization.

12.7 The Director of Women Affairs (DWA)

12.7.1 Shall have the primary responsibility for women affairs on behalf of the Organization.

12.7.2 The DWA shall plan and execute events designed to address the specific needs of women within the Organization. These events must align with the Organization's mission and actively support the professional, personal, or developmental interests of its female members.

12.7.3 Perform other duties or assignments as delegated by the President or General Assembly.

12.7.4 The post holder shall coordinate the voluntary support provided by the women members of the organisation to the events, programmes, and welfare assistance run by the organisation.

12.7.5 The post holder shall be the substantive President of Abiriba Women Cultural Organization (AWCO) in UK.

12.7.6 Provide liaison for and between the UK women members and other external organizations and the central AWCO body

12.8 Provost/Speaker

12.8.1 Ensure that proper decorum is maintained during all the meetings of the Organization.

12.8.2 Maintain order and ensure that only those properly recognized by the President are allowed to address the gathering within the amount of time allowed.

12.8.3 Seek the removal from a meeting venue of individuals or groups who are either disruptive or uninvited to a meeting of the Organization.

12.9 General Welfare Officers

12.9.1 This shall be an elected office comprising a male and a female.

12.9.2 Contact members to know why they were absent from meetings and identify what the organisation needs to do to assistance or encourage their participation.

12.9.3 Be responsible for the general welfare of the members

12.9.4 Organize, encourage, and motivate members to participate on issues relating to the welfare

12.9.5 Be the Chief initiator and coordinator of programs for the children and young adult of member up to 18 years of age.

12.9.6 Organize, advertise, seek sponsorship, and encourage broad participation in athletic, social, cultural, and educational activities for the youth at ACIU-UK gatherings.

12.9.7 Help co-ordinate the Organization Fair stand

12.10 Public Relation Officer

12.10.1 Shall serve as the Publicity Secretary of the Organization with the primary role of publicizing relevant Organization events, campaigns, through approved outlets and other communication media

12.10.2 Remind local chapters and member organizations of deadline and the procedures to be observed regarding specific activities and events.

12.10.3 Consult with other Executive members to produce appropriate materials, especially around events and campaigns.

12.10.4 Responsible for designing and producing materials to positively promote the Organization to the wider community.

13.0 Non-Electoral Offices

13.1 Compliance/Legal Coordinator

13.1.1 Shall provide advisory role using his/her expertise and knowledge of regulatory compliance to the organisation when required.

13.1.2 Shall be a member, unelected, independent, and shall not be part of the EXCO but appointed by the Executive on behalf of the organisation.

13.1.3 The office holder should be able to independently provide advice on compliance and regulatory matters to the organisation.

13.1.4 Participate in the review of the Constitution, by-laws, and the legal documents of the Organization.

13.2 Safeguarding Officer

The primary aim of the Safeguarding Officer plays a critical role in our organization to ensure the safety and well-being of vulnerable individuals (e.g., children, at-risk adults, or beneficiaries).

- Shall be appointed by the EXCO and ratified by the General Assembly
- Develop, review, and enforce safeguarding policies in line with legal requirements (e.g., child protection laws, GDPR).
- Ensure EXCO members, all members, volunteers, and trustees understand and comply with the safeguarding procedures.
- Identify potential risks of harm, abuse, or exploitation within programs, events, or interactions.
- Implement preventative measures (e.g., safeguarding vulnerable members at all gatherings, background checks, safe engagement).

- Periodically carry our safeguarding training and awareness campaigns and events.
- Act as the first point of contact for safeguarding concerns or disclosures.
- Follow confidential reporting procedures and liaise with authorities (e.g., social services, police) when necessary.
- Document incidents and actions taken, ensuring compliance with data protection laws.
- Report to the EXCO and Trustees on safeguarding matters (while maintaining confidentiality).

Health & Safety Coordinator

The primary aim of the H&S Coordinator is to ensure a safe and healthy environment for members, visitors and the public by implementing effective health and safety policies, risk management strategies, and compliance with legal regulations.

- Develop, review, and update health and safety policies in line with legal standards (e.g., Health and Safety at Work Act 1974, UK HSE, or local regulations).
- Ensure the organization complies with workplace safety laws, fire safety, and emergency procedures.
- Conduct regular risk assessments for activities, events, and workspaces.
- Implement corrective measures (e.g., safety equipment, signage, training) to minimize hazards.
- Organize periodic health and safety training for members (e.g., first aid, fire safety, manual handling).
- Act as the first point of contact for accidents, injuries, or near-misses.

- Investigate incidents, document findings, and recommend preventive actions.
- Maintain an accident log and report serious incidents to authorities if required.
- Develop and test emergency response plans (e.g., fire drills, evacuation procedures).
- Ensure first aid kits, fire extinguishers, and safety equipment are accessible and up to date.
- Conduct routine safety inspections of facilities and equipment.
- Report health and safety performance to EXCO and Trustees and recommend improvements.

14.0 COMMITTEES

14.1 As the need arises, the Executive shall use two categories of Committees; namely Standing Committee and Ad-hoc Committees to perform their duties for the effective running of the Organization.

14.2 The Standing and Ad-hoc Committees shall be set up for the purposes of conducting specific objectives for the Organization according to their defined Terms of Reference.

14.3 All Committees would be accountable to the Executive

14.4 Members of any Committees shall be drawn from the larger community of the Organization's membership to include and involve individuals whose expertise, knowledge or ability could facilitate or assist the committee in its work.

14.5 A member could be appointed into multiple committees.

14.6 Election Committee

14.6.1 The General Assembly shall appoint a 3-member Electoral Committee for the election of the Executive members into office at the end of each executive tenure. The elections mechanism shall be by secret balloting and a simple majority vote shall apply to all voting. Election ties shall be resolved by re-voting by the General Assembly.

14.6.2 All the members of the Electoral Committee would retain their voting rights. The Chairman of the Electoral Committee shall certify the election process, declare the results and swear-in the elected Executive officers.

14.6.3 Executive officers are allowed a maximum of two consecutive terms in a specific office and can stand for re-election for another position if the House continues to elect them to office.

14.6.4 The Electoral Committee shall be disbanded immediately after the election.

15.0 GENERAL MEETING:

15.1 The Organization shall hold regular monthly general meetings at such a time and at a venue specified by the Executive.

15.2 Members are freely allowed to express their opinions in such a manner that would not lead to the disruption of the meeting, or any form of disorder.

15.3 Members are encouraged to present identifiable opportunities for communal improvement as well as presenting constructive criticism when the opportunities are granted.

15.4 Disruptive conducts and lateness to meetings are discouraged and may attract an appropriate consequence as the General Assembly may deem necessary.

15.5 The official Annual General Meeting (AGM) of the Organization shall be held during the end of the year meeting to inform members of the state of the Organization, full statement of accounts and the strategic plans of the following year.

15.6 All members are expected to participate at AGM events.

15.6.1 If a member is running late to a meeting, he/she should contact any member of the EXCO for an excuse to be acceptable.

15.6.2 Once the opening prayers have been said of a scheduled meeting, a meeting is considered to have started. A lateness grace period of 15 minutes shall apply after which the penalty applies.

15.6.3 A penalty of £5 should be paid for lateness at the meeting.

15.6.4 Absentees from each meeting without permission attracts a fee of £10.00.

16.0 AMENDMENT:

16.1 Amendment to the constitution of the Organization either in part or in whole may be requested at an Annual General meeting and by a resolution passed by two-thirds of the registered members at the General Assembly.

16.2 Any amendment to the Constitution shall be ratified by two-thirds of the registered members at a General Assembly.

Constitution of the ACIU-UK
Date of Ratification: 28 August 2022
Last Amendment: 30 March 2025

Ratified by the General Assembly at the AGM of 28th August 2022

A.C.I.U. UNITED KINGDOM